- Respondent should be prohibited from attempting or having ANY CONTACT whatsoever with the Petitioner, either in person, through others or by telephone, mail, electronic means, or any other manner, at any time or place unless specifically authorized by the Court.

- Respondent should be prohibited from injuring, abusing, sexually assaulting, molesting, harassing, stalking or threatening the Petitioner, and from use, attempted use or threatened use of physical force against the Petitioner that would reasonably be expected to cause bodily injury.

- Respondent should be prohibited from engaging in other conduct that would place the Petitioner in reasonable fear of bodily injury to the Petitioner or the Petitioner's household members or relatives.

5. Request for Order of Protection

INSTRUCTION: If granted, the EMERGENCY TEMPORARY EX PARTE ORDER shall be effective only until the court date that is assigned by the Court during the approval of this order. You must come to the courthouse on that day if you want further Protective Order relief. If the Court does NOT grant an Emergency Temporary Ex Parte Order, you may still file a Petition when the Court opens for business.

REQUEST: The Court is not open for business, and the Petitioner requests an EMERGENCY TEMPORARY EX PARTE ORDER OF PROTECTION (22 O.S. §60.2(A)(2), §60.3(C), and §40.3). Petitioner requests the Court to authorize a law enforcement officer to complete the written statement attached to this Petition, and to impose all terms and conditions in the Emergency Temporary Ex Parte Order which are necessary to protect the Petitioner(s) from immediate and present danger.

6. WARNINGS TO PETITIONER:

- A. Whoever makes a statement or allegation in this Petition for Protective Order but does not believe that the statement or allegation is true, or knows that it is not true, or intends thereby to avoid or obstruct the ascertainment of the truth, may be found guilty of perjury. Pursuant to 21 O.S. §§500 and 504, the penalty for perjury, or subornation of perjury, is a felony punishable by imprisonment for not more than five (5) years.

- B. If the court makes specific findings that a petition for a protective order has been filed frivolously and no victim exists, the court may assess attorney fees and court costs against the plaintiff pursuant to 22 O.S. §60.2 (C)(2).
- C. It is against the law to file a petition for a protective order against a spouse or former spouse for the purposes of harassment, undue advantage, intimidation or limitation of child visitation rights in any divorce proceeding or separation action without justifiable cause. Violators may be subject to criminal penalties pursuant to 22 O.S. §60.4(H).

7. Sworn Statement/Affirmation of Truth

I state, under penalty of perjury under the laws of Oklahoma, that I have read the above and foregoing document, understand the meaning thereof, and declare that the facts and statements contained herein are true to the best of my knowledge and belief.
